

Santiago Stock Exchange

Access to a growing and future-oriented market

- Santiago Exchange is the leading exchange in Chile and the third-largest stock exchange in Latin America
- The exchange offers fully electronic trading in equities, bonds, money market instruments and forex
- Deutsche Börse acts as licensor Real-time and gives access to the full range of Real-time and Delayed Data under a single license agreement

Chile as an investment opportunity

- Chile is one of the fastest growing economies in Latin America in the last decade and a highly attractive market for investment
- It is one of the largest copper producers in the world, producing 28% of the world's total
- Chile also concentrates 54% of the world lithium reserves. In addition, it is the leading exporter of blueberries, cherries, grapes, plums, and apple and is at the forefront of wine production in Latin America and the Southern Hemisphere
- It has been ranked as a world leader in renewable energy and is focused on developing the production of green hydrogen

Santiago Exchange Indices & Spot Market

The Information Product Santiago Exchange Indices and Spot Markets is composed as follows:

- Price Information of Santiago Exchange's index family such as
 - S&P IPSA price and performance index, the Selective Stock Price Index is the Blue-Chip index of Santiago Exchange

- S&P IGPA index, the general stock price index of Santiago Exchange
- DJSI Chile, the Dow Jones Sustainability Chile index
- Fixed income indices, such as the S&P/CLX Chile Sovereign Bond Index and Chile Sovereign Inflation-Linked Bond Index
- Price Information of Santiago Exchange's spot market
 - Domestic and foreign stocks
 - Investment funds, mutual funds, ETFs
 - Corporate and treasury bonds
 - Money market instruments

Data details and access

- Un-netted pre- and post-trade Information
- Level 1 (best bid/best offer)
- Level 2 (market depth up to 5 levels)
- Onward dissemination via Information Suppliers (vendors)
- A list of Information Suppliers can be found on our website at Quick links > vendor list

www.mds.deutsche-boerse.com