

Deutsche Börse's Crypto Data Offering powered by Kaiko High-quality trade data and reference rates

- Harmonized market data feeds, combined for more than 90 centralized exchanges and more than 90% of the world's decentralised exchange trading volume
- Spot price rates for 50 different assets, BMR compliant reference rates for 27 assets
- Developed by professionals with specific focus on the needs of institutional clients along with quality assurance by Deutsche Börse
- 24/7 data delivery via custom-built cloud streaming solution via web-socket end point with highest data quality

About Kaiko

- Leading crypto data aggregator
- Founded in 2014 in Paris, France – specialised in digital assets data and analytics for institutional customers
- Leading source of cryptocurrency market data, providing businesses with institutional-grade and regulatory-compliant data
- Combines information from the world's leading centralised and decentralised cryptocurrency exchanges
- Offers wide range of reliable and actionable financial market data and services, including single token reference rates, basket indices

Use cases

- Back-testing of trading strategies and running simulations
- Reliable pricing and valuation of digital assets
- Analyses of order book liquidity for market making

- Comparison of prices across venues to find arbitrage opportunities
- Provision of charting and analytics into internal third-party platforms, apps or websites
- Underlying for ETPs and index derivatives
- Internal risk management purposes

Data details

- Asset-exchange bundled crypto spot products
- All crypto derivatives assets on all centralised exchanges
- All crypto spot on both centralised and decentralised exchanges
- Crypto spot price rates
- Crypto spot reference rates

data.services@deutsche-boerse.com
mids.deutsche-boerse.com